Falling Open Together is an invitation to realize and open ourselves to the nondual truth, releasing the natural, life-giving, loving consciousness that flows through us. When we live wide open, our experience becomes deeply rich and intimate. We can feel the full energy of life moving through us. We find ourselves fully available to everything that happens, guided by the natural love and wisdom that arises effortlessly and transcends any of our beliefs or opinions.

This experiential gathering reveals a radical alternative to all the self-destructive ways we've learned in order to cope with challenging situations. It is an opportunity to let go of trying to be what we have been told to be, and instead receive the full gift that is here for us, waiting to be accepted.

Adam Chacksfield is visiting Bulgaria again, thanks to people who have been touched by their experience with him. Adam has an extraordinary capacity to guide people into open consciousness, and merge with the energetic flow of life and love. Centered in the heart, direct and attentive, he offers a direct path to our nature and a deep awareness of our pure self.

With his gentle presence and deep wisdom, Adam creates a soft, open and safe space. He helps participants dive into a consciousness beyond the veil of illusory perception. In a gentle, direct, and completely non-violent way, he invites the opening of our hearts, minds, and life energy. As the resistance within us dissolves we're able to enjoy our natural state of abundance, joy, wisdom, and love.

Who is Adam Chacksfield?

Adam, PHD, is the creator of the courses "Falling Open", "WE Relating" and "Erotic Embodiment & Intimacy". Born in England, he currently lives in San Francisco. He was a university professor. At the age of 33, he left academia to devote himself to his spiritual pursuits. In 2010, with the help and support of Peter Fenner, Adam began supporting individuals and groups in North America and Europe. Adam's work has been heavily influenced by the teaching of Jannie Zandi, and more recently his training with the Somatica Institute.

"We are invited to receive the ultimate gift,
for which there is no substitute,
worth infinitely more than all our dreams and fantasies.
We accept this gift by simply falling open.
When the heart and mind fall open
we find ourselves intimately present and completely available to what is here.
Our struggle with reality dissolves into harmony"
- Adam Chacksfield
